I'm going to open up this document by saying that this probably isn't going to be super long so if you're worried about this eating up your time I don't think you should worry. There are just a handful of things I want to say.

This is a very important thing I want to mention as well. I am not going to be putting any labels onto Paradox. So if you came into this document expecting any super major exposé, you came to the wrong place. This is not an attempt at cancel culture.

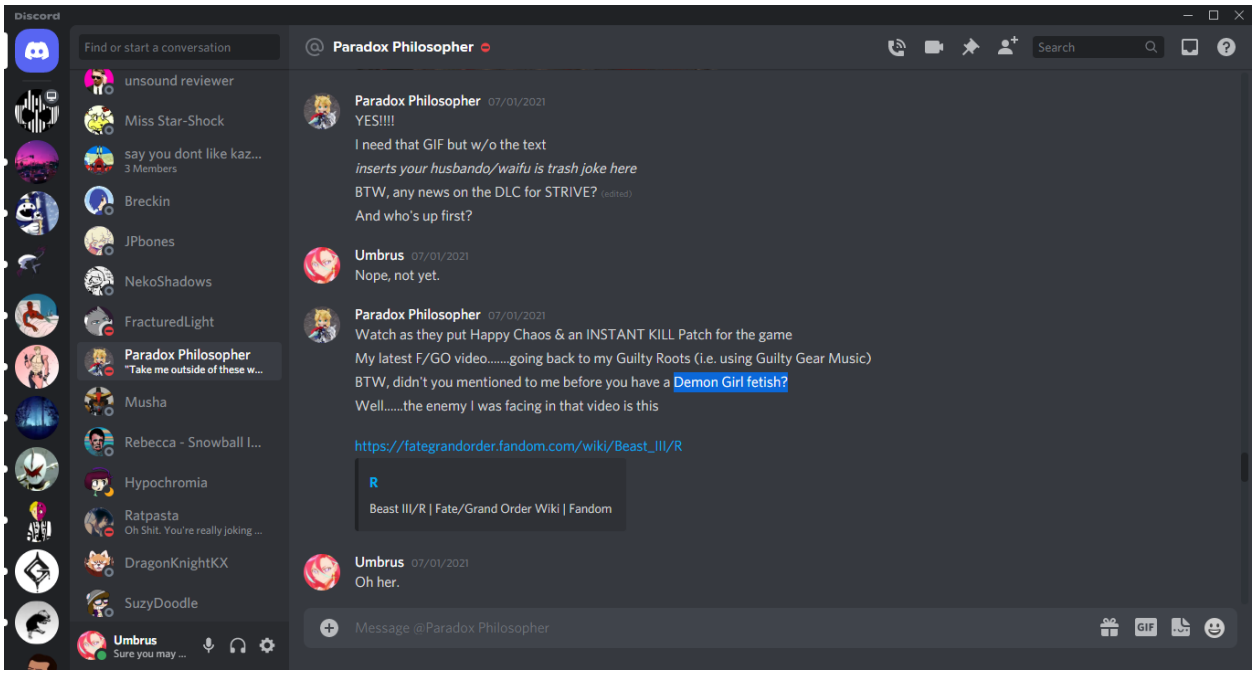
Anyway with that out of the way. I'm going to start the document.

I have recently cut ties with a friend of mine named Paradox Philosopher (or @ParadoxZaibatsu on Twitter). He is someone who has been a friend of mine since… 2018 I wanna say? We both shared a common interest, fighting games, so we quickly became good buds. Over time however, I noticed he had some very strange quirks. I want you to keep in mind that he is 29 turning 30 this year. This is going to be quite relevant for a few points.

He has a tendency to be really down bad for anime girls, and not in a good way. What do I mean by this? Every single time a female is brought up in a conversation, especially if they're posted in a chat, Paradox has to go on a tangent on their cup size and how fuckable they are. He never seems to take into account who is in the vc at the moment he is saying this as there is always one or two minors in the call when I hear him do this. I should know, I'm always one of them (of course). Essentially the problem here is that Paradox is very vocal about his sexual interests and doesn't read the room to check if it's okay to say it. This is going to be important later. I rarely see Paradox ever talk about a female character as a character and more so talks about how horny he is for them. It makes me sick in the stomach whenever I hear it.

Recently however, there was a straw that broke the camel's back. This was a DM conversation I had with him at the very beginning of July.

It starts off… kinda normal? I uploaded a funny GGST clip, got a porn bot comment and Paradox just warned me about them. Makes sense. I'm showing this because the conversation has a shift in direction very quickly.



After a conversation we had about random shit, he randomly asked about my… demon girl fetish??? I do not remember ever telling him I had one. In fact I don't have quote-on-quote ''fetishes'' anymore since I'm gray-ace and I am not into sexual shit. Again, keep in mind that this man is 29 and I'm 16. This is not a question you should be asking a minor. If anything I just like demon girls. It's entirely possible to like something and not have it be a fetish or hell, you can talk to people about your ''fetishes'' without downright saying it's a fetish. This is an extremely uncomfortable remark and it is lowkey disgusting. I think the main thing that gets me really ticked off is that I never once asked him to talk to me about this supposed fetish and proceed to show me a demon girl.

Now I have seen this character before but considering they look like that… yeah I got a bit uncomfortable.

Now I will get back to this one in a second. But notice how I say ‘’I won’t.’’ in response to ‘’Good grief’’. You see, originally he said something along the lines of ‘’good grief’’ followed by ‘’I swear I don’t have a nun fetish’’ and then ‘’okay… naughty nun fetish and a schoolgirl outfit fetish’’ and then says ‘’don’t judge me’’ and that’s why I said ‘’I won’t.’’ In case you have any doubts that this happened, hear me out.

He then continues to show me images of this Kiara character and shows their summer variant which has a… less sfw design… especially the alt.. And then shows me an image of his oc with three versions of Kiara… without asking me.

You see my entire thing about the character is that I think they look neat, I like them, I can understand the appeal. I prefer other Fate characters but I get why someone would like her… but why are you talking to a 16 year old about how down bad you are for a woman? He posts another image like the one shown above but with other characters, but it’s not really that important.

Hey Paradox. I was looking back on those DMs we had yesterday and I felt very uncomfortable by them. I don't like talking about anything sexual such as "fetishes" (which I don't even have). I think you should either tone down or flat out stop the sexual talk in my presence. It makes me very uncomfortable.
Paradox Philosopher 07/02/2021
Gotcha, especially if your parents my see what was typed in your DMs
Let me delete'em

What is important is that after consulting some people, I decided to set some boundaries. Paradox much to my surprise was okay with this because I know how stubborn he can be when he gets called out. But I feel like he didn't see the real issue here. My parents never really check my devices or my DMs, so that's not a major concern. I think you should be more concerned about the fact you were talking to me, a minor about this. He then deletes the messages I paraphrased earlier. So in case you had your doubts, there's proof that it did happen.

Now Paradox hasn't broken my boundaries since, but I do still feel uncomfortable by the conversation we had. This was not the first time this happened, and this isn't even the first time within the same week he did something stupid in my DMs.

So in my little community I hang out in, we have been dealing with a nuisance named Sherman. Long story short, he doxes a lot of people in the SCC. Paradox talked about this individual in my DMs and well… it isn't the best thing in the world.

I made up my mind, there's just..... EH-! I'll explain via video.
It's almost uploaded to my channel, but I'll give ya the unlisted ver. first before SHERMAN shits on it

Umbrus Jun 29, 2021 17:56
I'd recommend just uploading the video normally if Sherman is that much of a bother.
But I'll check it out.

Okay
Either way, making precautions in case that black bastard (no really, Lindata showed me what he looked like) dares to piss me off
I have nothing against my any black people in general, I have a few friends that are "my brothers from another mother"
Does that make any sense???
BTW, your thoughts on Seox/Six?

(I censored Sherman's face because although he is shitty, I am not gonna be shitty back.)

This is kinda lowkey racist. I asked my girlfriend (who is black btw) what "ghetto move" means. According to her, it is a stereotype that implies that people from the ghetto are criminals which is… not a good thing to be saying. Keep in mind Paradox is from the Philippines and as far as I can remember he isn't black. He shouldn't be saying this. And that is ignoring how he just completely showed Sherman's face without me asking. I only asked what he meant by "black bastard" (which is also really bad and it is clear why). After this he changes the subject. Something he tends to do a lot.

I think you might've noticed a recurring pattern. Paradox never asks if I want to see something. He is extremely stubborn and doesn't think before he speaks/does anything. It is the same reason I am afraid to tell him "no, don't do that" because he has such a big fucking ego.

He also holds this weird grudge against my friend Critic. Critic can vouch for me on what caused this grudge… he called Paradox a boomer and now Paradox has this petty vendetta against him. He even went as far as to leave POG over Critic… existing I guess?

"Shit reasons"?!? He's making look bad all because I wanna do something else! (edited) I'm done.
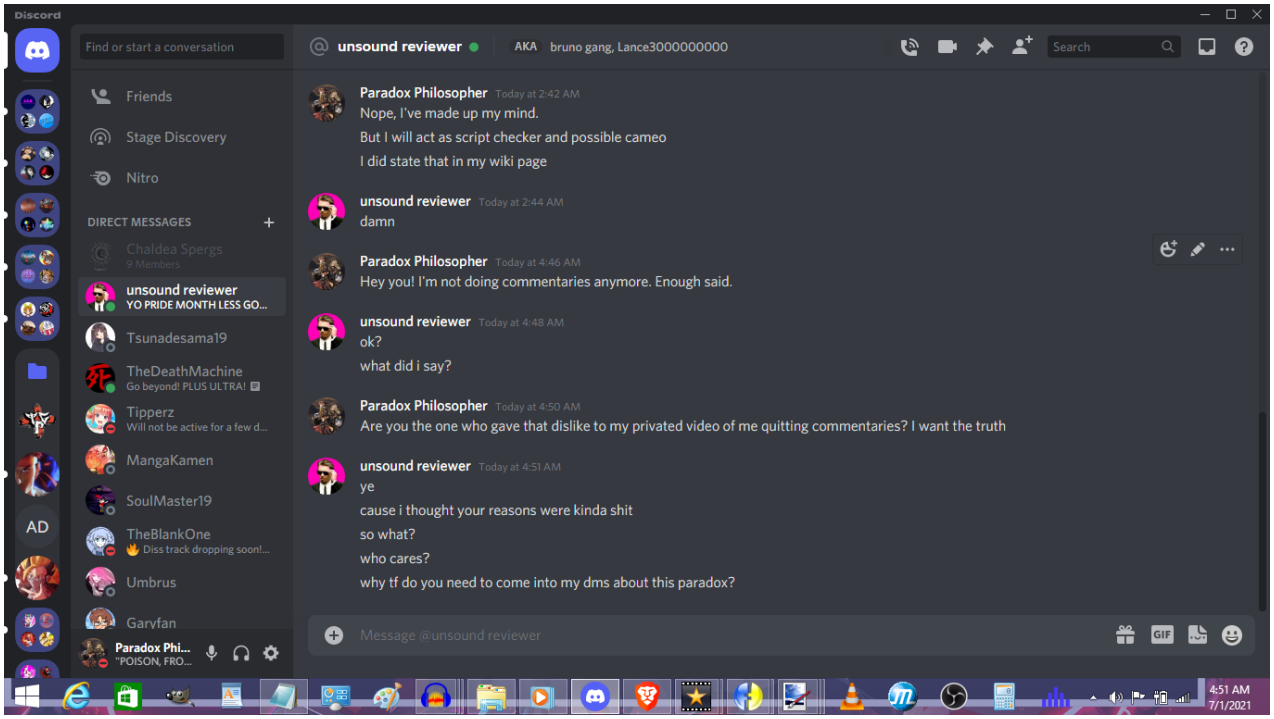
I've blocked him, I'll blacklist him from my private server....I just don't don't like him at all.
I felt attacked on a personal level
Paradox Philosopher Yesterday at 10:05 PM
Just to save my sanity.....I left the group. I don't wanna see him, I don;t wanna interact with him, and I don't wanna hurt his frustrated fifis over whatever I do that he perseveres as bad towards him.
I hoped to God that he'll mature before his stunts will lead him into trouble



For context, Paradox uploaded a video and posted a Tweet announcing he'd quit commentaries and put them in the POG chat. Critic was asking why and then Paradox proceeded to talk down to Critic for asking a question. This was brought to DMs and then Paradox just randomly showed me his conversation with Critic and stated that this is why he left POG. To put it nicely, this is fucking petty.

By the way, the very day this took place, Paradox randomly put Critic on blast for no reason. This isn't the first time he pulled this as he did the same in a VC in my private server.

Message #general

This went on for a few minutes. A lot of people were very confused. I know that Paradox has gone off about Critic in another server I'm not in. But I won't go into that as again, I'm not in there. That's the last thing I feel like I should touch on.

So in conclusion. Paradox is someone I refuse to interact with any further. I blocked him on Discord and Twitter, I banned him from my private server and I am making sure that it is possible to never talk to him ever again as I feel unsafe talking to him thanks to his DMs with me and his constant simping over women in Discord VCs. I don't want anything to do with Paradox. I'm cutting ties with him from this day forth.

That's all I have to say on the matter. I am done with Paradox and nothing is going to change that, not even if he apologises. End of story.
